

In December 2000 , in a lonely village in the north , I heard a cry in the night...

I put my dressing gown on then I went downstairs ...I was worried I opened the door and I walked outside ...

It was very cold . The cry was coming out from the house of my neighbor across the street ... I knocked on the door ... nobody opened ... so I decided to push the door because it wasn't locked ! There wasn't any light inside , it was so dark . I lighted a lamp and I saw my neighbor sitting on a rocking chair ... he was terrified ... paralyzed He cried for help again Because there was a tiny weeny spider next to his feet !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I got rid of that terrible monster I had saved his life He thanked me a lot He kissed me And we fell in love !!!
